

↓ How to get to Mozambeats from Maputo ↓

OWN TRANSPORT:

In Mozambique driving is on the left hand side. For tips & tricks check our website under 'getting here' or the Facebook page 'DriveMoz'.

From Maputo, follow the signs to Xai-Xai, and from there simply go further northwards, until you reach the turning for Inhambane (approximately 8 hours drive). Entering Inhambane, follow the signs for 'Praia da Tofo' and 'Mozambeat Motel'.

When you arrive in Tofo (approximately 20 mins scenic drive), look for the signs for Mozambeat Motel.

4+4'S — Where the road sharply turns to the left (there is a local bar on the corner, called Black & White, and a clothing shops on your right hand side), take the sandroad uphill. After about 150 meters, where the road forks, follow it to the right, drive past our neighbouring guesthouse Turtle Cove and then take the first left to finally arrive at your beloved Mozambeat Motel.

2WD — Go past the junction described above for 4+4'S, and take the 2nd right (which almost rises from the main tar road just after the quarry) up to the top of the hill and then turn right. Follow the road roughly 500m, parallel to the sea, and take the 2ND right turn onto Rua des Amandoas. Follow this road all the way to the end (up and down another bumpy hill) and take a right at the facing T-junction. From this road, take a left when it forks by neighbouring guesthouse Turtle Cove and then take the first left to finally arrive at your beloved Mozambeat Motel.

If you are planning on arriving later than 22:00 PM please inform us so we can leave the roomkeys with our security.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT:

From Maputo travel up to Tofo is relatively simple, there is only 1 highway in Mozambique: from North to South. There are a couple of options for busses:

- You can book a seat on the 'FATIMA'S BUS', which leaves from Fatima's Backpackers Maputo (not recommended to stay) via the junta/bus station in Maputo at approximately 4AM (though in reality it doesn't leave until its full!). Tickets can be bought in the bus for 800 mts.
- The (air-conditioned) ETRAGO coach leaves every morning at 04:00 AM from Maputo (in front of the Super Spar, close to the airport) in the direction of Tete / Quelimane / Nampula / Pemba, a ticket can be bought in the bus and costs also 800mts. You will arrive around midday in Inhambane. In busy season there are more busses going per day, so it's worth to give them a call and find out. From there you can take a chappa, tuktuk or taxi to Tofo.
- Chappas from Maputo to Tofo are regular (during daylight) and take more than 8 hours — how long exactly is a mystery and part of the mystique, your guess is as good as ours! As long as you've readied yourself for an unpredictable journey, full of livestock, regular stops and hot temperatures, this is one of the most authentic ways to carry out your African adventure. Chappas leave in Maputo mainly from 'Junta' and in Inhambane in the back of the 'Mercado Central'. If you are not sure where to go, ask a local. They are very friendly and helpful!
- Once (low-season) or twice (high-season) per week TOURS TO MOZ and AFRIMOZ TOURS do direct bus transfers from Johannesburg Airport to Tofo (via Maputo Southern Sun hotel). This is a really comfy bus with a reliable driver. You can buy your bus ticket online, find the link on our website under 'getting here'.

If you come with a shuttle from Maputo or Johannesburg, ask the driver to drop you off at Black & White restaurant just before Tofo village. You can either stretch your legs and walk from there (250 mtr to Mozambeats) or you can call us and we will fetch you.

BY PLANE:

You can fly from Maputo to Inhambane airport with LAM, this will only take you 30 minutes.

We provide an airport pick-up from Inhambane airport to Mozambeat Motel for 1.000 Mts — just let us know your flight details in advance.
